

PRESS RELEASE - CUENTOS FOUNDATION - TEN YEAR CELEBRATION MAY 17, 2008

Cuentos Foundation is celebrating its tenth year anniversary! In the fall of 1997 Cuentos Artistic Director, Michele Feder-Nadoff went to live and study with a master coppersmith in the traditional copper-smithing community of Santa Clara del Cobre, in the highlands of Michoacán, Mexico. Shortly after her return, she began founding the Cuentos Foundation with an outstanding team of artists and community activists.

Since then, Cuentos has been striving to fulfill its vision: the Global is Local and its Mission: to give voice to the stories (cuentos) of our diverse communities. Cuentos creates and facilitates artistic projects which document, express, and share transforming cultural traditions. Its Global/Local programs utilize the arts to create intercultural exchange. Cuentos' major founding project Ritmo del Fuego/ Rhythm of Fire has been dedicated to Santa Clara del Cobre and has produced a major publication and video documentary, plus numerous interdisciplinary artistic projects bringing together the Chicago community through arts and artists.

Saturday May 17th beginning at 6PM Cuentos will celebrate its tenth anniversary with a nightful of art, music, community stories, and good company. Cuentos invites you to attend a performance, panel discussion, followed by Rocambu Jazz and DJ Leyva – accompanying the exhibition "inside, outside & across", selected works 1997–2008 by Michele Feder-Nadoff. The exhibit is a highlight of the art created by Feder-Nadoff inspired by her work with the foundation.

(SEE INFORMATION BELOW AND ATTACHED FLYER)

YVES FRANCOIS ET ROCAMBU JAZZ was formed in 2001 by jazz trumpeter Yves Francois Smierciak and several other like minded musicians. The mission of Rocambu Jazz is to explore the rhythms of African and Afro Diaspora musics. We are finding the common bonds between music from West Africa (highlife and the Guinean and Malinky music of Senegal and Mali), Congo (old school rumba, soukous), Martinique (biguine), Haiti (compas), Cuba (son, conga), Jamaica (ska), Trinidad (calypso), Brazil (choro, samba, bossa nova) and New Orleans (early jazz/dixie land). Rocambu Jazz exploits the common bonds of the musics in our unique interpretations of the various forms. Essentially we are speaking of the various creoles all these nations provided when the African rhythms and phraseology met the melodies of Europe (France and Spain). The African musicians reshaped the great popular music vocabulary of the 20th century musics. These musical forms have many names, but they are all a musical creole broadly known as jazz.

This is the Cuban music that no longer gets the recognition it deserves – from the sophisticated Danzon, to the horn driven Mambo, to the percussive Rumba, to the heart of Salsa, the Cuban Son, as well as classic 70's salsa and Latin Jazz.
